Arrests

Strong-Arm Robbery | Assault & Battery on a Law Enforcement Officer [LEO] – On May 30 at 10:40AM, officers responded to the Exxon located at 7113 Sudley Rd in Manassas (20109) to investigate a robbery. The victim, a 68-year-old woman, reported to police that she was pumping gas when she approached by an unknown male juvenile, later identified as the accused. During the encounter, the accused asked the victim for money before grabbing her purse which caused her to stumble off the curb. The accused then took a credit card and fled on foot. While investigating, officers learned the accused used the victim's credit card at a nearby business before being located at a nearby hotel where he was taken into custody. As the accused was being escorted to a police cruiser, he spat on two officers. The accused was placed in a police cruiser where he attempted to damage the vehicle's windows. When officers took the accused out of the vehicle, he began to suffer from a medical emergency and was transported to an area hospital where he received treatment and was released. No injuries were reported by the officers. Following the investigation, the accused, identified as a 17-year-old male juvenile, was arrested.
